How to use this form:

I am:	I need to read:	I need to complete:
A deferred member (not receiving a pension)	Sections 1, 4, 5, 6	Part I, II, III, IV
A retiring or retired member (about to receive or receiving a pension)	Sections 2, 4, 5, 6	Part I, II, III, IV
A surviving pension partner, an ex-pension partner, or a beneficiary	Sections 3, 5, 6	Part I, III, IV

SECTION 1: YOU ARE A DEFERRED MEMBER

Use this form to designate the beneficiary(ies) who will receive a death benefit if you die while a deferred member and are not survived by your pension partner, if applicable. If you do not designate any beneficiary(ies) and are predeceased by your pension partner, if applicable, the death benefit will be paid to your estate.

If you have a pension partner, they are automatically first in line for any death benefits if you die while you are a deferred member. Do not list your pension partner as a beneficiary in Part II. For your reference, a description of the term 'pension partner' is provided in Section 4. If you have a pension partner, please ensure you have completed a Pension Partner Information form to provide us with their information.

SECTION 2: YOU ARE RETIRING OR YOU ARE A RETIRED MEMBER

Use this form to designate the beneficiary(ies) who will receive a death benefit if you die after starting to receive a pension, and the pension option selected at retirement has a guaranteed period. Keep in mind that the beneficiary(ies) you designated while an active or deferred member will still be applicable if you do not make any new designations prior to your death.

Do not list your pension partner as a beneficiary in Part III unless your pension partner waived their right to a survivor pension, and you wish to name them as a beneficiary for a Single Lifetime pension option. For your reference, a description of the term 'pension partner' is provided in Section 4.

If you selected the Normal Form (Joint Lifetime with Reduced Survivor Benefit) of pension option, a survivor pension is payable to a person who, at the time of you die, satisfies the definition of pension partner and who had been married to you for at least 5 years prior to the time you die, or who had lived with you for at least 5 years prior to the time you die. You should not use this form to designate beneficiary(ies) as the Normal Form pension option has no guaranteed period.

If you selected a Joint Lifetime pension option other than the Normal Form, any death benefit will be paid to the pension partner you had at retirement. You should not use this form to designate beneficiary(ies) as the Joint Lifetime pension option has no guaranteed period.

If you selected a Single Lifetime pension option, and there is time left in the guaranteed period associated with your pension option, the death benefit will be paid to your beneficiary(ies), or if you have not designated any, to your estate. If your pension partner had waived their rights they may be listed as a beneficiary in Part III.

You should not designate any beneficiary(ies) if:

- You are a retiring member and you are selecting a form of pension with no guaranteed period, or
- You are a retired member who selected a form of pension with no guaranteed period, or the applicable guaranteed period has already expired.

Designation of Beneficiary(ies)

SECTION 3: YOU ARE A SURVIVING PENSION PARTNER, AN EX-PENSION PARTNER, OR A BENEFICIARY

Use this form to designate the beneficiary(ies) who will receive a death benefit if you die after commencing to receive a pension benefit and there is time left in the guaranteed period associated with the pension benefit you are receiving. If you do not designate any beneficiary(ies), the death benefit will be paid to your estate.

- Pension partners and ex-pension partners: If there is no guaranteed period associated with the pension benefit you are receiving, or if the applicable guaranteed period has expired, you should not designate any beneficiary(ies).

SECTION 4: DETERMINING IF YOU HAVE A PENSION PARTNER

“Pension partner” means

- (i) a person who, at the relevant time, was married to an officer or former officer, and
  - (A) was not judicially or otherwise separated from him or her, or
  - (B) if so separated, was wholly or substantially dependent on him or her,
- (ii) if there is no person to whom subclause (i) applies, a person who
  - (A) lived with the participant or former participant
    - (I) for the 5-year period immediately preceding the relevant time, or
    - (II) for the 2-year period immediately preceding the relevant time if there is a child born to that person and the participant or former participant, and
  - (B) was, during that period held out by the participant or former participant in the community in which they lived as his consort, or
- (iii) if there is no person to whom subclause (i) or (ii) applies, a person who was married to but separated from the participant or former participant and not dependent on him at the relevant time

Remember: You can only designate your pension partner as a beneficiary in very specific circumstances. Please ensure you review the relevant instructions provided in Section 1 or 2, as applicable, to determine if you can list your pension partner as a beneficiary in Part III.

SECTION 5: DESIGNATING A MINOR CHILD, REPRESENTED ADULT, A CHARITY, OR YOUR ESTATE AS YOUR BENEFICIARY

If you are designating a minor child, represented adult, a charity, or your estate as your beneficiary, please review the relevant content below before completing Part III.

- Minor child: If you would like to designate a minor who is under 18 years of age as your beneficiary, we recommend you name an adult over the age of 18 as trustee. Please complete the applicable fields in Part III indicating that the beneficiary is a minor and provide the full name of the trustee. If you do not name a trustee, the default trustee for any minor beneficiary will be the public trustee.
- Represented adult: If there is a trusteeship order, please complete the applicable fields in Part III indicating the trustee and provide the full name of the trustee.
- Charity: If you would like to designate a charitable organization as your beneficiary, please complete the relevant fields in Part III with the full name and charitable organization number. Do not list a specific person associated with the charitable organization.
- Estate: If you would like to designate your estate as your beneficiary, please write “estate” instead of a person’s name in the relevant field in Part III. Please note that if you designate your estate as your beneficiary, the amount payable to your estate will be subject to the claims of creditors, if applicable.

SECTION 6: LEGAL INFORMATION

You may wish to obtain legal and financial advice when estate planning.

Any future beneficiary designations, including those in a Will, may invalidate this designation of beneficiary(ies). If you choose to designate the beneficiary(ies) of any PSM(CM)PP benefit entitlement using your Will instead of this form, please make sure the designation relates to your PSM(CM)PP benefit.

For more information about designating beneficiaries, please visit psmpp.apsc.ca or contact the Member Services Centre at 1-877-422-4748.
